The State Arbitration Board Serves Notice on Vice-President Webb.

Knights and Railroad Officials to Be Heard at the Gilsey House Tuesday.

Mr. Powderly Makes a Forcible Utterance on the Issues of the Hour.

INFECTAL TO THE EVENING WORLD, I ALBANY, N.Y. . Aug. 28. - The following notice was to-day ordered served by the State Board of Mediation and Arbitra. tion on Mr. Weeb, Third Vice-President of the Central-Hudson Bailroad, and Master Workman Lee, of D. A. 246, Knights of Labor :

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 28. DEAR SIR :

At a meeting of the State Board of Mediation and Arbitration, held at the Capital this day, the following resolution was adopted:
Resolved, That in the judgment of this

Board it is best to inquire into the cause or causes of the controversy growing out of
